

ELCA Missionary Profile

The Rev. Mark and Linda Nygard Egypt

Mark is the coordinator of graduate studies at Evangelical Lutheran Seminary in Cairo. He organizes coursework, facilitates the invitations of visiting professors, mentors students, advises thesis writing and teaches courses in the church history master's program. They partner with the Presbyterian Church in serving the seminary.

Contact

Evangelical Theological Seminary in Cairo
8 El-Sakka El Beda St.
Abbasia, Cairo
Egypt 11381

Email

mnygard001@luthersem.edu

Calendar

Mark's Birthday: May 8
Mark's ordination: August 29
Linda's birthday: August 20
Anniversary: May 25

Connect

Companion Synod: Egypt has no companion synods.

Home-base States:

North Dakota (home), Minnesota (children live in Twin Cities),

Mark

Education

B.A. Chemistry, math, German
Minot State University
(Minot, ND)

M.Div./M.Th./Ph.D. Systematic Theo.
Luther Seminary
(St. Paul, MN)

M.R.S. Islam
University of Regina
(Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada)

Hobbies

Hiking, bird watching, astronomy.
Music

Linda

Education

B.A. German, French
University of North Dakota
(Grand Forks, ND)

Hobbies

Reading, piano, walking.

Additional Information:

Mark and Linda were both farm kids growing up in North Dakota. They have served for many years on overseas assignments. They have 3 grown children and 5 grandchildren.