

During the darkest chapter in human history, the people, churches, and government of only one country refused to cede their Jewish citizens to the dire fate that awaited them in Nazi-occupied Europe.

Please join in the COMMEMORATION of the 70th Anniversary

Rescue in Denmark

of the Danish Jews by the Danish People

Saturday • September 28th, 2013 • 4:30 pm
Mount Rushmore National Memorial Amphitheatre

The Bravery of Scandinavian Lutherans

In all parts of Denmark, clergymen, civil servants, doctors, store owners, farmers, fishermen and teachers protected the Jews. A united Lutheran Church openly and persistently challenged the German offensive helping Jews escape to Sweden.

